Vinny Giles challenges young 'uns See what you can do... next year

Marvin (Vinny) Giles was enjoying every second of his spectacular victory at the 15th Porter Cup at NFCC. Beer in hand, he entered the tent for the awards ceremony and was accorded a standing ovation by fans and competitors alike.

He had just blazed through 18 holes of golf in a tourney record 63 that carried him from a four-stroke deficit to his first triumph in this amateur classic after six tries. He ripped apart the 6,526-yard course with six birdies and an eagle in the final round.

Gary Koch, whose name was immortalized in Porter Cup lore during Chairman Bill Quirk's post-tournament remarks, led the field by two strokes going into the last round but double-bogeyed the ninth hole to fall from the lead.

CHIP SHOT... Michael Zichy hitchhiked across Canada from Calgary to Niagara Falls in time to compete in the 15th Porter Cup. His stay at NFCC was short-lived, however, as he fell victim to the Porter Cup's only 36-hole cut.
