Clampett rallies to capture Porter Cup

BYU's Bobby Clampett rallied from three strokes behind with six holes to play and, with the help of three successive birdies on holes 15-17, became the youngest player ever to win the Porter Cup Amateur.

The 18-year-old California native overhauled 1975 Porter Cup Champion Jay Sigel and defending Champion Vance Heafner to put the finishing touches on a brilliant display of golfing skill. He posted a final round 65 for an 8-under par total of 272 and a two-stroke edge over Sigel who climaxed his steady tournament showing with a 66.

Clampett's fifth win of a magical summer was set up by a course record 62 shot in the tournament's second round.

To help get over a first-round 75, Bobby Clampett attended a Linda Ronstadt concert with his host family, the Mead's

CHIP SHOT... Corey Pavin topped the PGA Tour's money list in 1991, when he was the last man to achieve this without winning at least one million dollars. The 3-time Ryder Cup team member and 1995 U.S. Open Champion currently holds the record for the fewest number of strokes needed to complete nine holes at a PGA Tour event, with an 8-under par score of 26.
