They could have crowned two champions at NFCC at the conclusion of the 34th Porter Cup.

David Duval and John Harris distanced themselves from the rest of the field and staged a duel that came down to a two-stroke swing at the par-3, 16th hole. It was there Duval's 18-foot birdie conversion and Harris' bogey reversed the one shot deficit Duval had faced since the seventh hole.

David Duval was the 1993 NCAA Player of the Year

On the strength of a final-round 70, Duval posted a 10-under par 270, the third lowest score in tournament history. "It's a great win in a great tournament," said Duval, a runner-up to Phil Mickelson in 1990.

While sitting atop the Official World Golf Rankings in 1999, Duval eagled the 18th hole in dramatic fashion to shoot 59 in the Bob Hope Chrysler Classic's final round
